GENERAL MEETINGS

13. The company shall in each year hold in addition to any other meeting a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. Provided that the Company may hold its first annual general meeting within a period of not more than eighteen months from the date of its incorporation.
14. Every Annual General Meeting shall be called during such hours, on a day excluding a public holiday and shall be held either at the Registered Office of the Company or at some other place in the Republic of India, as may be determined from time to time by the Board under the powers vested in the Board by the Central Government and the terms and conditions under which the Company has been allowed to be incorporated and registered under Section 8 of the Act and the Notices calling the meeting shall specify it as the Annual General Meeting.¹
15. The Annual General Meeting shall be called for the following purposes :-
 - (i) To receive the Balance Sheet as at the end of the period specified in sub-section (2) of Section 129, an Income and Expenditure Account for the period, and the reports of the Board of Governors and auditors.¹
 - (ii) To elect members of the Board in the place of those retiring.
 - (iii) To appoint an Auditor or Auditors to hold office from the conclusion of that meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting and to fix their remuneration.
 - (iv) To transact any other business as may be included in the Notice by the Board and of which due notice has been given.
 - (i) The Board may call an Extra Ordinary General Meeting whenever in their opinion any question of such importance shall arise as to require it and shall be bound so to do on receiving a written requisition signed by such members as would exercise at least one tenth of the total voting power of all the members having at the said date a right to vote in regard to that matter, notifying the object for which the Extra Ordinary General Meeting is to be called. No business shall be transacted at an Extra Ordinary General Meeting other than for which the meeting has been called.
 - (ii) If the Board does not, within twenty one days from the date of the deposit of a valid requisition in regard to any matter, proceed duly to call a meeting for the consideration of these matters on a day not later than forty five days from the date of the deposit of the requisition such of the requisitionists as represent not less than one tenth of the total voting power of all the members of the Company may call the said meeting.¹
 - (iii) A meeting called by the requisitionists or any of them -
 - a) shall be called in the same manner as possible as that in which meetings are to be called by the Board; but
 - b) shall not be held after the expiration of three months from the date of the deposit of the requisition.
17. At least fourteen days notice in writing of every General meeting specifying the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat shall be given in the manner herein specified to such members of the Company and also to other persons as are under the provisions of the Act entitled to receive notices from the Company. Accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of such notice by any member or other person to whom it should be given shall not invalidate any resolution passed or proceedings at the meeting.¹
18. The quorum at all General Meetings of the Company shall be as prescribed by the Companies Act, 2013.¹

¹ substituted vide Special Resolution passed at the AGM held on 29.09.2016.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

19. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting commences.
20. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or at such other time and place as the Board shall appoint by notice to the Members, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall be the quorum.
21. With the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, the Chairman may adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place, as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for twenty one days or more, seven days notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as for an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
22. The Chairman of the Board of Governors shall preside at every General Meeting, but if there be no such Chairman or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for holding the same, or he is unwilling to preside, the Vice Chairman, if present, shall preside. In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice Chairman, the members present shall choose some member of the Board of Governors or if all the members of the Board of Governors present decline to take the chair, the members shall choose some other member of the Company, who is present, to preside.
23. Each life and ordinary Member shall be entitled to one vote.
24. At all General Meetings, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands by a majority of the members present in person or in the case of corporate or firm members through their duly appointed nominee or representative and entitled to vote, unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands a ballot be demanded in writing by the Chairman or by at least five members present in person or through their duly appointed nominee or representative and entitled to vote and unless a ballot be so demanded a declaration by the Chairman of the Meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the books of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence thereof without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
25. If a ballot be demanded in the manner aforesaid, it shall be taken forthwith or at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting shall direct and the result of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
26. A ballot demanded on the election of the Chairman of the meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A ballot demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the Chairman of the meeting may direct.
27. In case of an equality of votes, either on a show of hands or a ballot, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or a casting vote.
28. The demand of a ballot shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a ballot has been demanded.
29. No member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting unless all monies due from him and presently payable by him to the Company have been paid.
30. A corporate member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall in the absence of its usual nominee or representative appointed pursuant to Article 6, be entitled to appoint any other individual from within its organization as its representative by a proper written instrument. Such representative shall be entitled to attend, vote and speak at such meeting.

31. No article shall be made, altered or repealed and no new Article shall be added or made unless the proposal to make, alter, repeal any such article or articles has previously been submitted to and approved by the Regional Director, Company Law Board as required under clause VI of the Memorandum of Association and thereafter unless the same is passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members of the Company present and voting at the General Meeting of the Company. Twenty-one clear days notice shall be given of any such resolution giving full particulars of the proposed alterations, repeals or additions. Such alteration, repeals or additions shall come into force on and from the date of the General Meeting accepting the same, or from such date as the General Meeting may resolve.
32. The Chairman may invite such persons as he may, in his discretion decide to attend (but not vote at) any General Meeting of the Company and such invitees shall have the right to address the meeting if called upon so to do by the Chairman and otherwise participate in the deliberations of the meeting.

A year for this purpose is the period from the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting at which his second term expires to the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting.
- 37.
- (a) If at any meeting at which election of members of the Board of Governors is to take place, the number of persons eligible for and contesting the election to a particular category is equal to, or, less than the number of vacancies in the said category such persons will be deemed to have been elected uncontested.
 - (b) If at any meeting at which election of members of the Board of Governors is to take place, the number of persons eligible for and contesting the election to a particular category exceeds the number of vacancies to the office of the Board of Governors in the said category, there shall be an election by ballot.
 - (c) The Board of Governors shall from time to time frame rules for election to the office of the Board of Governors by ballot. Such rules shall, inter alia, contain the following provisions :-
 - (i) Eligibility criteria for members to vote and/or to contest the election
 - (ii) Preparation of list of members entitled to vote and contest the election.
 - (iii) Procedure for inviting nominations for election to the Board.
 - (iv) Procedure for scrutiny and publication of final list of valid nominations.
 - (v) Appointment of scrutineers, distribution of authenticated ballot papers and counting of ballot papers and declaration of results.
 - (vi) Such other rules as may be necessary to ensure fair and efficient elections.
 - (d) The aforesaid rules shall be framed by the Board and circulated to the members in the first instance at least two months before the election. Any subsequent amendment of the said rules shall be made and circulated at least two months before the date of the ensuing elections.
- 38.
- (a) In the event of a vacancy arising in the office of a member of the Board, the remaining members of the Board shall appoint a member from the same category to which the member whose vacancy is proposed to be filled belongs, to fill in the vacancy. The member so appointed shall hold office only upto the date of the next Annual General Meeting of the Company.
 - (b) If by any reason whatsoever, the strength of the Board falls below 12, the remaining members of the Board shall continue to act and exercise their usual powers: Provided, however, that if the number is reduced to below 8, the remaining members of the Board can act for the purpose of summoning a general meeting of the Company and for no other purpose.
39. The office of a director shall be vacated if – ¹
- (a) he incurs any of the disqualifications specified in section 164;
 - (b) he absents himself from all the meetings of the Board of Directors held during a period of twelve months with or without seeking leave of absence of the Board;

 Altered vide Special Resolution passed at EOGM held on 24th January 2020

- (c) he acts in contravention of the provisions of section 184 relating to entering into contracts or arrangements in which he is directly or indirectly interested;
- (d) he fails to disclose his interest in any contract or arrangement in which he is directly or indirectly interested, in contravention of the provisions of section 184;
- (e) he becomes disqualified by an order of a court or the Tribunal;
- (f) he is convicted by a court of any offence, whether involving moral turpitude or otherwise and sentenced in respect thereof to imprisonment for not less than six months:

Provided that the office shall be vacated by the director even if he has filed an appeal against the order of such court;

- (g) he is removed in pursuance of the provisions of this Act;
- (h) he, having been appointed a director by virtue of his holding any office or other employment in the holding, subsidiary or associate company, ceases to hold such office or other employment in that company.
- (i) he is found to be of unsound mind by a Court of Competent jurisdiction;
- (j) he is adjudged insolvent;
- (k) he or any firm of which he is a partner or any private company of which he is a director without the sanction of the Company in General Meeting and also of the Central government in terms of clause V of the Memorandum of Association accepts or holds any office of profit under the Company;
- (l) by notice in writing to the Company, he resigns his office;
- (m) he ceases to be a nominee or a representative of a member of the Company.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

40. The Board may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.

41. Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, questions arising at any meetings shall be decided by a majority of votes.

42. The Chairman of the Board, upon the request of at least four members of the Board, shall convene a meeting of the Board. The Chairman may otherwise also call a meeting of the Board at any time.

43. The quorum for a meeting of the Board of Governors shall be either 8 members or twenty five percent of its total strength whichever is less provided that the quorum shall not be less 2 members.¹

44. Clause amended at the EGM held on 4th Aug. '97

- (a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b) hereof, the Board of Governors shall at their first meeting elect from amongst its members a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman who shall remain in office till the next election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman. Subsequent elections of Chairman and Vice-chairman shall take place at the first meeting of the Board of Governors held immediately after each Annual General Meeting. No Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall hold the same office for more than two terms in a block of four years, a year for this purpose being the period commencing from the date of one election of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman till the date of the next election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.
- (b) The first Chairman of the Board shall be from amongst its members mentioned in clause (a) of Article 4 hereof while the first Vice Chairman shall be from amongst the members mentioned in category (b) of Article 4.

(Alteration was approved by the ROC vide Letter No. ROC/Appln/Sec 8/55/6/16 dated 01.09.2016)

Clause amended at the EGM held on 4th Aug. '97

- (c) At any given time the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman shall not be from the same category.
- (d) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he shall be present, or if at any meeting the Chairman be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Vice Chairman, if present shall preside. In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice Chairman, the members of the Board present may choose one of their members to be Chairman of the meeting.
45. In the event of the Chairman or the Vice Chairman dying, resigning, ceasing to be qualified or otherwise vacating his office, the Board of Governors shall have the power to nominate in his place as Chairman or Vice Chairman as the case may be any one of its members of the same category to hold office for the balance of the period for which the original Chairman or Vice Chairman was elected.
46. A meeting of the members of the Board for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, powers and discretion as by or under the Act or the Articles of the Company are for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Board generally.
47. Subject to the restrictions imposed by the Act, the Board may delegate all or any of their powers to committees consisting of such person or persons as they think fit and it may from time to time revoke and discharge any such Committee either wholly or in part and either as to persons or purposes, but any Committee formed shall conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Board.
48. All acts bonafide done by any meeting of the Board or of any Committee appointed by the Board or by any person acting as a member of the Board shall notwithstanding, it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Board.
49. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be made of the proceedings of all meetings of the Company and of the Board and any Committees appointed by the Board in accordance with the provisions of Section 118 of the Act.
- The minutes of the proceedings of a meeting of the Board or of a Committee appointed by the Board shall be confirmed with or without modification, at the next meeting of the Board or of a committee appointed by the Board, as the case may be, and on such confirmation shall be signed by the Chairman of the meeting to which the proceedings related or by the Chairman of the meeting at which the minutes are confirmed.
- The minutes of the proceedings of a general meeting shall be signed by the Chairman of the same meeting within thirty days of the conclusion of the said meeting or, in the event of the death or inability of the Chairman within that period, by a member of the Board of Governors duly authorized by the Board for that purpose.
- On being signed as aforesaid the minutes shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated in respect of the business transacted at the concerned meeting.
50. Subject to the provisions of Section 175 of the Act, a resolution passed without any meeting of the Board or of a Committee appointed under these Articles and evidenced by writing under the hands of all members of the Board or of its Committee as aforesaid for the time being in India, shall be valid and effectual as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Board or of its Committee and held in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.

POWERS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS

51. (a) The affairs of the Company shall be managed by the Board who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the Company and who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Act, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, or by these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulation of these articles, to the provisions of the Act, and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations, or provision as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

- (b) The Board is empowered to make and modify from time to time such rules as it deems fit for the definition of eligibility for membership and other matters, subject to their ratification by the Company in the next Annual General Meeting. A decision by the Company in the said Annual General Meeting not to ratify a particular rule or modification of a rule shall not, however, invalidate any action taken pursuant thereof in the intervening period.

ACCOUNTS

52. The Board shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept with respect to -
- a) the assets and liabilities of the Company; and
 - b) all sums of money received and expended by the Company and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place.
53. The books of account shall be kept at the Registered Office of the Company or at such other place or places as the Board shall think fit, and shall be open for the inspection of the members of the Board during business hours.
54. The Board shall from time to time determine in accordance with the provisions of clause IX of the Memorandum of Association, at what time and places and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members not being members of the Board.
55. At some date not later than eighteen months after the incorporation of the Company and subsequently once at least in every year the Board shall lay before the Company in Annual General Meeting an Income and Expenditure Account for the period since the last preceding accounts or in the case of the first accounts since the incorporation of the Company made up to a date not more than nine months before such meeting, in the case of first accounts and not more than six months in the case of subsequent accounts, together with a balance sheet made up as at the same date. Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by a report of the Board and a report of the Auditors and a copy of such accounts, balance sheet and reports shall not less than twenty one days before the meeting be sent to all the members in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served. The auditor's report shall be read before the meeting as required by Section 145 of the Act.¹
56. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the Income and Expenditure account and balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified auditor or auditors.
57. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with Sections 139 and 140 of the Act.¹

NOTICES

58. (a) A notice may be given by the Company to any member either in writing or through electronic mode to him to the registered address supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notices to him.¹
- (b) Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected properly by addressing, pre-paying and posting a letter containing the notice and unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post. A certificate in writing signed by such person as the Board may authorize for the purpose that the letter containing the notice was so addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence thereof.
59. Notice of every General Meeting shall be given in same manner herein before provided to every member except those members who have not supplied to the Company an address within the Republic of India for the giving of notices to them.
60. No member of the Company shall be subject to any liability beyond payment of entrance fee, annual subscription and contribution under Article 10 and except as provided by the Memorandum of Association.

OTHER MATTERS

61. Every officer or Office-Bearer for the time being of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with an application under section 463 of the Act in which relief is granted to him by the Court.
